Research Interests

Currently, I am pursuing my PhD in Islamic University, Kushtia. The title of the research is: The Novels of Anita Desai: An Austere Disparagement against the Male-chauvinistic Society. Registered in the academic year 2016-2017.

My area of research is those literary works that have been written for those (females) who can't handle the situations, who find themselves trapped in situations on which they have no control. I am trying to focus on how the works of Indian Diasporas, especially the works of Anita Desai, picturesquely depict and reflect the long-smothered pangs, pains, and plights of the women of Indian Sub-continent.
