

322—PHC Course Specification

Institution	JAZAN UNIVERSITY
College/Department	College of Pharmacy

Course Information

1. Course title and code: 322-PHC English for Pharmacy I.
2. Credit hours 1 HOUR
3. Program for which the course is offered.
Fifth level, Third Year of medical students at the above mentioned college, as a main course of English academic skills and communication, where the focus is shed on the four language skills both receptive and productive (reading, listening, writing and speaking) along with the necessary grammar elements and common vocabulary. Academic English is primary and English for medicine is secondary in this course.
The course should have at least three contact hours per week.
4. Faculty member responsible for the course
The English Language Center of Jazan University
The College of Pharmacy
5. Level/Year at which this course is offered: Fifth Level, Third Year, College of Pharmacy
6. Pre-requisites for this course: 203-ENGH
7. Location of conducting the course: Premises of the College of Pharmacy

Course Objectives

- To practice writing skills at the sentence level and paragraph level.
- To be able to express themselves well.
- To be able to support their ideas and opinions.
- To give counter arguments, analyzing persuasive language in advertisements, researching a topic using Wh-questions and ideas maps, raising and discussion alternative points of view, identifying and explaining opinions for and against an idea, analyzing and applying the idea of multiple intelligences
- To use the language in every day situation.
- To acquire skills in building vocabulary as well as activating their passive (previous) vocabulary
- To be given the opportunity to practice the language effectively for listening, reading, writing, and speaking
- To have further input on grammar and usage, including modals to express opinion, talking about preferences, passive forms, talking about the future, conditional sentences, modal verbs for giving advice
- To have more study skills that promote self study learning, such as the dictionary, publishes tests, and the internet.
- Generally, to be able to understand the main ideas of complex texts (written or spoken) and be able to interact with others while expressing his/her views freely.

Main Course Book:

Ostrowaska, Sabina (2014). Unlock Listening and Speaking 3. Cambridge University Press

Additional Material: Use of recommended sites by the teacher
www.cambridge.org/unlock
Access to Tell-Me-More Program

Topics to be covered:

Units 5 - 10 within fourteen weeks of actual teaching; some parts are assigned as home and self study activities.

Total contact hours per week
Theoretical	Practical As required 3	Other: Intensive guided assignments related to the textbook mentioned above

Assessment

✓ Two assignments	40 marks
(Assignment 1(presentation)	20 Marks
Assignment 2 (written)	20 Marks)
✓ One Progress Test	40 marks
✓ One final Examination	60 marks
(Listening Final	15 marks
Final Examination	45 marks)
Total Marks = Classwork (Average of Assignments + Progress Test) + Final 40 + 60 = 100 Marks

Remarks:

There is a periodic course evaluation conducted at the end of every semester. Analyses are taken for course improvement so as to meet the actual immediate needs of the learners, particularly those needs pertaining to their study and anticipated (future) work situation.